News from Acting Head

Dosbarth Elian have had a very busy week that started with a trip to Llandudno museum and ended with a trip to the Tennis Centre in Eirias park to play Wheelchair Basketball and Boccia. Mrs Lewis was so proud of the way they behaved and she is looking forward to organising more outings in the future. Da iawn Dosbarth Elian.

We all had a great time celebrating the European Day of Languages on Thursday. There were many different languages being spoken throughout the day. A massive thank you to the kitchen staff for preparing European themed meals this week. They were a huge hit.

On Tuesday we will be holding a PJ Day for Alder Hey hospital. The children can come to school in their pyjamas, but they must wear sensible shoes that they can run around in. You can donate any amount straight to the hospital following this link Creating Brighter Futures | Alder Hey Children's Charity \(alderheycharity.org\) Our thoughts are still with Rhea and her family following her surgery last week.

Congratulations to the children who did their homework last week and learned to tie their shoelaces! They have been so excited to show me their new skills. Well done children.

Do you have any old board games or jigsaws that you no longer use? On very rainy days, the children have to stay indoors to play, and it would be lovely if they had more resources to play with at these times. Thank you.

Have a lovely weekend.

Kind regards,
Beth Hughes
